

Christopher J. Archuleta

christopherjarch@aol.com • (708) 435-3932 • 3521 Clinton Ave. #1 Berwyn, IL 60402

OBJECTIVE

Apply disciplined cartographic workflows and geographical perspectives to data analysis, data visualization, and cartography

ACADEMICS

University of Wisconsin-Madison, 05/08/2021 Graduation

- B.S. in Geography, Cartography/GIS, and Environmental Studies
- UW-Madison Chancellor's Scholarship Program (2017-2021)
 - Four-year full tuition merit-based/need-based scholarship

WORK EXPERIENCE

UW-Madison Cartography Lab Student Cartographer, 01/2019—Present

- Create and revise maps for Lab clients and map users before deadlines
- Prioritize ethical and minimalist design techniques for presentation purposes
- Utilize vector editing, raster editing, and GIS softwares for map production
- Regularly communicate with clients and publishers to produce maps with proper content and design

UW-Madison Division of Diversity, Equity, and Educational Achievement

Academic Coach, 08/2018—12/2018

- Prepared collaborative activities and class notes to tutor physical geography student twice per week
- Demonstrated several studying strategies for student to practice based on their strengths, weaknesses, and weekly schedule

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Friends of the State Street Family Madison, WI

Street Outreach Volunteer, 09/2018—Present

- Distribute food, clothing, and hygiene products to people in Madison experiencing homelessness with one to three other volunteers
- Record specific needs of individuals for personalized support including referrals, medical supplies, and free transportation arrangements

SKILLS AND OTHER EXPERIENCES

- 2018 Midwest Undergraduate Geography Symposium River Falls, WI
 - Poster presentation on 04/21/2018 about hypothesized connection between UW-Madison student residence location and preferred pastime activities
- GIS software and Adobe software competency
- Elementary knowledge of Spanish and American Sign Language